Texas Ranch Owners Are Sending $5,000 to Obtain the Release of Negro Foreman, Held Prisoner by Mexicans.

1By Associated Press. 1 EL PASO, TEX., March 15.—Colonel James J. Hornbrook, former com-commander of the El Paso district, left liere today for Hachita, N. Mex., to in-Nestigate Villa activities south of the border

Major-General DeRosey C. Cabell, commander of the southern depart-ment, ordered Colonel Hornbrook to take command of the Hachita subdis-trict during the time Villa's men were immediately south of the Gadsden purchase.

Twelfth Cavalry troops are patrolling the border south of Hachita.

Martin Lopez and Ramon Vega were reported in Ascension and Janos, sixty-live and seventy-five miles south of Hachita. American and Mexican ranchers and other refugees were crossing the border at Hachita and Columbus late yesterday and last night.

"Bunk" Spencer, the negro ranch foreman at the Ojitos ranch was being held for $5,000 ransom by Lopez, and the American ranch foreman left the border late last night with the ransom money. A number of Mexicans were also being held. The ransom was demanded of the Warren Bros., of Three Oaks, Mich., who own the Ojitos ranch.

CAUGHT ANOTHER TERRIBLE COLD?

Relieve it quickly with Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey.

Don't say you're going to let it wear itself out. It's just as liable to become chronic. And then——?

The balsamic ingredients of Dr.

Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey help to sooth the tickle, the healing ingredients help nature to scatter the phlegm-conges tion, and a happy, comfortable relief soon follows.

Coughs due to grippe, bronchitis, and asthma also are relieved. And at a very trifling cost for Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is very economical. Try it —30c. 60c and $1.20.
